November 25th, 2019

Greetings and Happy Holidays from Lutheran Campus Ministry of Fresno,

As the year end draws near and we bid farewell to a decade, I'm humbled and grateful for the support many of you have shown not only to LCM but also the kindness that's been displayed in the midst of transition. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank everyone that has graciously welcomed me into my position and invited me into their lives and congregations.

This year LCM was blessed with many individual gifts and congregational offerings which helped further our mission. In August we were especially fortunate to offer school supplies to young adults in need thanks to the many generous in-kind donations and financial gifts received through our School Supplies Drive. I'm especially grateful for the opportunity to not only award one Darcy Jensen Scholarship to a recent high school graduate, but three scholarships this year due to a generous financial gift.

The Bulldog Pantry was also blessed with generosity this year. Due to the dedication and determination from Erica Bird and Student Coordinator Heidi Gonzalez, the pantry was awarded financial grants which allowed the pantry to not only remain open in the summer, but also serve more families in need this Fall. The pantry welcomed another Student Coordinator, Jacqueline Avina this past Fall and we are grateful for the continued partnership with California State University, Fresno. The pantry was also fortunate to receive many in-kind donations this year and with partnerships in the valley, the footprint of the Bulldog Pantry continues to leave a lasting mark in Fresno.

As 2019 comes to a close, I humbly ask you consider making a year end gift to Lutheran Campus Ministry of Fresno and the Bulldog Pantry. This year, like many others we're joining the #GivingTuesday movement on Tuesday December 3rd, 2019. Each year on December 3rd, #GivingTuesday serves as a global generosity movement intended to help others through gifts, donations, services and time.

For those willing and able to make a financial gift, please visit our website www.lcmoffresno.org and click the "Donate" button on our home page. Financial gifts can securely be made online through PayPal on our recently launched Online Giving platform. Financial gifts can also be mailed in the enclosed envelope. Please make checks payable to Lutheran Campus Ministry of Fresno and in the memo line, please indicate what fund you would like your gift placed.

This year your generosity can further support LCM and the Bulldog Pantry through in-kind donations. The following wish list items would be helpful and appreciated to further our work.

1. Copy paper
2. Standard size business envelopes
3. Small regular size envelopes (giving envelopes)
4. Office Depot, Target or Wal-Mart gift cards
5. Stamps
6. Disinfectant wipes
